Cellular Jail

Declared a National Memorial, the Cellular Jail in Port Blair stands as a reminder of the brutality and barbarity inflicted upon freedom fighters who were kept there. Completed in 1906, it was aptly named "Cellular" due to its honeycomb-like design that contained individual solitary cells. This place of pilgrimage draws people down memory lane to the times of the freedom struggle. The Jail Museum is open from 9:00 am to 12:00 noon and from 1:30 pm to 4:45 pm daily.
